Decision on changed accreditation (2 appendices)

Decision

The Swedish Board for Accreditation and Conformity Assessment (Swedac) decides to change the accreditation of SSAB EMEA AB (registration number 556313-7933) in accordance with the application/notification dated 2020-10-28, case file 2019/2744. The issued accreditation is of the scope detailed in Appendix 1. This decision replaces previous decisions dated 2020-02-03, case file 2019/491.

The accreditation is valid until further notice.

Basis for decision

SSAB EMEA AB has applied for changed accreditation as a testing laboratory. Based on the performed assessment of SSAB EMEA AB it is Swedac's judgment that SSAB EMEA AB fulfils the accreditation requirements for the scope of accreditation detailed in Appendix 1.

Information concerning requirements for accreditation

An accredited body is obliged continuously to fulfil the requirements for accreditation. Failing this, Swedac may decide to withdraw the accreditation. The applicable requirements for your accreditation are detailed at www.swedac.se (<https://search.swedac.se/en/accreditations>).

Swedac performs surveillance of the accredited activities in accordance with its regulations for accreditation. The cost of the surveillance activities are borne by the accredited bodies through the payment of an annual accreditation fee. The fee regulations currently applicable are found at www.swedac.se.

Applications for extension or reduction of the scope of accreditation shall be submitted to Swedac. The application forms currently applicable are found at www.swedac.se.

This decision has been taken by the division manager Helen Nyman after a hearing, detailing the pertinent particular circumstances, with case officer Karin Lindholm.
